Classes: VI to X

Dear Parents,

"One book, one pen, one child and one teacher can change the world."

- Malala Yousafzai

Congratulations to our dear students and parents! One more milestone has been created in the educational journey of our young ones. One more success story has been penned down.

We are happy to communicate that our school is on the path of progress. Last session saw us reaching and achieving new milestones under the shadow of COVID 19 and its aftermath. Despite all odds, our school performed very well during this year in all spheres, and our students have brought many laurels to the school. It is the time to gratefully thank you for your cooperation and constant contribution in the development and betterment of this school, with a hope that you will continue to hold the same trust in us as you have for the past so many years.

Welcome to the new chapter in the life of your child: One in which, we trust, they will continue to grow to reach their highest potential.
